

Kojori → Korogli Fortress and Waterfalls

10 km · 4-5 hours · easy · Kvemo Kartli, Tbilisi municipality

Why Go

The fastest way into the mountains from Tbilisi. The marshrutka takes about forty minutes and drops you at 1,350 metres, noticeably cooler than the city in summer.

What Matters

You can decide in the morning and be home by evening. The route works in winter too, but there is snow on the ground.

The Route Stage by Stage

1

Kojori to the Ridge Path

1.5 km · 30 min · ascent 70 m

From the marshrutka stop the path climbs onto an open ridge.

2

Ridge to Korogli Fortress

1.5 km · 40 min · ascent 80 m

A tower and part of the walls on a rocky spur. The view works in both directions.

3

Fortress to the Gorge

2.5 km · 1 h · descent 350 m

The path drops away and shade and a stream appear. The most pleasant part of the route.

4

Gorge to the Kojori Waterfalls

1.5 km · 40 min

The waterfalls are small, but in summer locals gather by the water with barbecues.

What to Take With You

- ✓ 1.5 litres of water
- ✓ Boots with grip
- ✓ Swimwear in summer for the waterfalls
- ✓ Snacks or money for a cafe in Kojori
- ✓ Windproof: it is cooler up there
- ✓ Cash in lari for the marshrutka

Season

All year round. In winter there is snow in Kojori, so bring suitable footwear.

Getting There

Marshrutka from Vake or Rustaveli metro stations, about 40 minutes. It runs regularly throughout the day.

How to Use the Coordinates

The format is latitude, longitude and pastes into a maps search exactly as it appears. Navigation apps do not always recognise these villages by name, so save the points in advance and download an offline map of Georgia. Coordinates point in a straight line, but you walk the path.
